Getting over language barriers

Many people suffer from insufficient or a complete lack of compensation for damages from traffic accidents, labor cases, etc. simply because of language barriers. Or some people may be unaware of insufficiency of compensation they have received.
We would like to service such people with our legal expertise and negotiation skills for them to obtain appropriate legal aid. And then, we would like to better realize justice in our society and aide in Japan’ s international reliability as a constitutional government.

Kouki Law Office has been offering various legal services for 36 years, especially focused on traffic accident cases. We would like to convey the reliability of this law office and reach out to anyone involved in incidents that require legal action.
